

Barefoot Walk for Charity

June 9th - 10th - 11th - 12th 2010

After watching the documentary film “A Walk To Beautiful”

Kalantha Brewis was so moved by the plight of the fistula patients in Ethiopia that she decided to walk 35 miles barefoot to help raise awareness of these young women who have suffered horrendous childbirth injuries, mainly through the lack of midwives and ante-natal care.

Kalantha said that to show how appreciative she is about the wonderful midwifery care our patients in the UK receive, thus preventing these terrible injuries, she is embarking on this barefoot walk, hoping to raise funds to enable more women in Ethiopia to be treated.

Places she will be calling at en route will be :

- Eckington
- Pershore
- Inkberrow
- Redditch
- Alvechurch
- Kings Norton
- Women's Hospital in Birmingham,
a fitting end for the walk.
